Money Sources:

What are money sources? Well obviously money sources are sources of money. Money sources allow us to take from the portals of wealth. To experience a money source, there must be a divide of a body: A body could be an ego, or a mountain, a body is a name. When we divide the life of these ego's/bodies/temples we bring about the discoveries of new material connections. After we have divided and discovered a type of newness and freshness, we are then a layer above others who don't have access to the same knowledge of the income sources as we do.

These income sources may be unique or they could also be within the same category of another source. Sources could be individual; for only you - or they could be a source of income for you and many others at the same or different times!

The foundation to attract money sources is to start with a dream. We start with a dream because we are creating our dreamed memories of a life that we are trying to connect and expand into. What life do you wish to have? What kind of life do you want to have? What in this life would put you a layer above the rest so that you would experience these earnings regularly?

What repeats would you and your customers constantly live through?

Awakening to Abundance:
Understanding Parasitic Energies and Cosmic Potential

Xne's insights on Parasites:

- Parasites feed on energy and hinder personal growth.
- They can be overcome by thinking from a predatory perspective.
- Showing others a parasite's secrets that are meant to be hidden drains the parasite of its power.
 - Parasites can be overcome by incorporating subconscious elements that counter their feed.
- This book "Portals of Prosperity" aims to help readers overcome parasites and tap into hidden knowledge sources.

To Obtain Wealth.

Parnasimic Insights on Parasites:

- Parasites exist on multiple planes: physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual.
- They thrive on fear, doubt, and ignorance, feeding on low-vibrating energies.

- Parasites can be classified into three types:

1. Energetic vampires = drains energy and vitality.
2. Thought parasites = manipulates thoughts and emotions.
3. Soul parasites = targets spiritual growth and connection.

- Overcoming parasites requires:

1. Self-awareness and recognition of parasitic patterns.
2. Energy protection and shielding techniques.
3. Thought pattern shifting and emotional regulation.
4. Spiritual growth and connection to higher states of consciousness.

A thing that I notice about parasites is that they especially enjoy to feed upon free will. Free will is treasured to parasites because free will indicates that you think for yourself and that you are generating your own content and wealth. Having true Free Will indicates that you are a generator of your own prosperity. Your prosperity is prized. The parasites and aim to take from you discretely AND OPENLY to steal what is yours. They use shadow deception and idiocracy.

Some Examples of Parasitic Behavior:

-If you make a book, well a parasite might threaten to or attempt to rewrite the entire book the exact same way you that you wrote it and change then change just the title to try to hide it.

-If you make have an incredible idea, well a leech would openly try to steal your idea and not ask your permission to do so and will probably brag about it.

Illuminating Securities: Safety Measures

By incorporating parasite protection techniques, you will:

1. Safeguard your wealth from energetic vampires and thought parasites.
2. Maintain high-vibrating energies, attracting abundance and prosperity.
3. Ensure spiritual growth and connection remain unobstructed.

Cosmic Shielding Ritual:

- Stand under the night sky, preferably during a full moon
- Imagine a cosmic shield of white light surrounding your body

Recite:

"By cosmic will, I shield my wealth and energy from parasitic influence. I am protected, I am secure, I am abundant."

- Visualize the shield expanding to cover your financial endeavors and assets

Unlocking Cosmic Potential: Tapping into Inner Wealth and Abundance

For someone to be able to utilize Money Source Magick, the first thing they would have to take notice of are plains. They would have to automatically come to with the realization that earth and specific locations are the LIFEFORCES of Money Source Magick.

Parnasimic Views of Plains-

What are plains?:

-Plains are energetic layers or dimensions that exist beyond the physical realm but at the same time is the physical realm, each with its unique characteristics and influences on reality and the spiritual realms. In the context of Money Source Magick, plains represent different levels of wealth manifestation and abundance.

- These plains are interconnected and influence one another, with the higher plains affecting the lower ones. Understanding and navigating these plains is crucial for mastering Money Source Magick and manifesting wealth in all areas of life.

When one utilizes Money Source Magick, they are making the choice show up, using divination as a tool to earn from the Repeats of the Money Source Plain. These repeats stem from the pain which could be understood and seen as a business. These repeats are the set beliefs of the business heads. The Set Beliefs, also known as Dark Moons, set the amount of earnings that will be prioritized for the earnings to be attracted and then received.

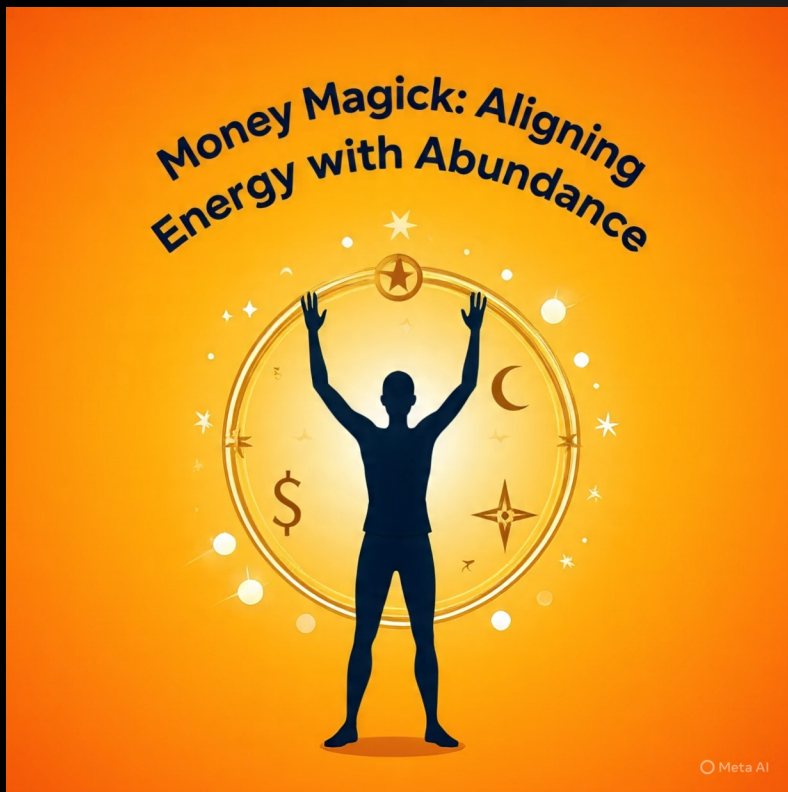

Setting Beliefs upon fresh earth plains that you desire to earn from gives the practitioner priorities. These priorities, when accomplished transmute and are turned into dreamed memories. These dreamed memories are the earnings. The earnings are the set amount of money that the practitioner chose to set with their choices of divinations.

- Earnings appear each new cycle when you set new beliefs.
 - Earnings appear each new business cycle, when required repeats appear upon the plain.
 - These new cycles of earnings keep you a layer above your customers so that the practitioner lives their desired life (/lives) they want.
- Each New Moon = New Dark Moons = New Repeats/New Business Cycles/Setting New Beliefs

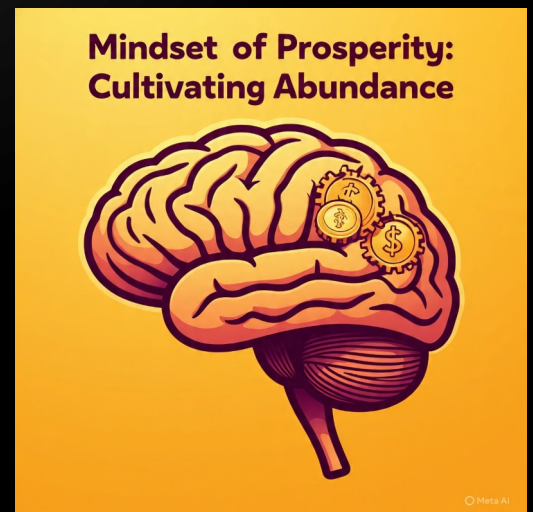

Understanding the Art: That's Wealthy!

"Money magick is the art of aligning your energy with abundance. It's not just about manifesting wealth, but also about cultivating a mindset of prosperity. By focusing your intentions and emotions, you can attract abundance into your life. Remember, money magick is a journey, not a destination. Soulbound Sovereignty:
Ego's Ascension to Abundance

To feast from, and to feed upon your wealth sources, it is a must that you be layer above the life. The plain is what gifts that foresight that you use to stab at your customers wallets and to make them bleed cash for you. The plain that makes you the money is the place you live your desired "business life" from. The plain soul binds your position via your knowledge and purposes for the plain. If you choose to be a musician then you will have certain "soul binds" to certain plains of understanding that others wouldn't. These plains of understanding are what solidify you to the life position that you dream about.

As you ascend to Soulbound Sovereignty, your ego indulges in the fruits of your labor. You become a master of your domain. Your wealth, influence, and power grow exponentially.

But remember, true sovereignty lies not in ego indulgence alone. It requires balance, wisdom, and a deep connection to your inner self.

Harmonizing Environments: The Keys to Sovereign Wealth Creation

Your Dream Life's Wealth Magick:

Choosing a Dream (life) and appearing to be the person of that life requires you to have relief and accomplishment. Which stems from your communication/trust that you convey outwards. This relief and accomplishment that you are conveying are visible and they are what gifts you the foreknowledge to look forward to the stoppages of your business plan.

It is the Customers foresight that appears the money you need. That money is given to you when you transfer your actions or abilities as services to the customer.

Customers only purchase your services when you have met the needs of the "environment", which is the plain. So in essence, you must be able to service the needs of the plain you dream of to make money from it.

The Needs of the Environment = Money Source

Choosing a dream life and appearing as its sovereign requires:

- Relief from self-doubt and accomplishment in your vision
- Effective communication and trust conveyance outward
 - a magnetic aura attracting opportunities
- Foreknowledge to navigate life's challenges and "stoppages"
 - intuitive insights into market trends and customer needs
- Customers' foresight of value in your services manifests as money
 - their trust is the currency exchanged for your expertise
- Transactions establish mutual authority and sovereignty: your skills empower customers, while their purchases empower you

Divine Idea Generation: Tap into your creative subconscious

– meditate, journal, or brainstorm to unleash original solutions.

- Ego Divide Navigation: Understand customer segments

– analyze demographics, psychographics, and pain points to tailor your offers.

- Environmental Alignment: Ensure your ideas solve real problems

– validate with customer feedback, surveys, or market research.

- Automatic Trust Transmission: Infuse your messaging with empathy and authority

– use customer language and showcase expertise.

Prosperous Reality:
Binding Time to Wealth

Every memory has a belief that is to die for. These beliefs are beliefs that you believe in hardcore. You choose these beliefs on your own, and so they are black beliefs. The dark belief that “is to die for” is communicated by our own Plains of Understanding.

Our plains of understanding allow us to each individually experience or have experiences from within.

-Every moment that is experienced contains a dark belief - A belief that is to die for.

This "dark belief" is actually a powerful catalyst – a dormant seed of conviction waiting to be harnessed. By bonding with past moments, we reclaim fragmented aspects of our soul and unlock:

- Latent potential for wealth creation
- Enhanced intuition for profitable decisions

As we embody this Prosperous Reality:

- Time becomes fluid, allowing us to manifest wealth rapidly
 - Past regrets transform into valuable business insights
- Future anxieties dissolve, replaced by confident vision Our "dark beliefs" now serve as:
 - Fuel for unstoppable motivation
 - Foundations for unshakable self-trust
- Keys to unlock hidden streams of passive income And ultimately, we discover that:
 - Binding time to wealth is not just a strategy
 - but a state of being
 - Prosperity is not just a goal
 - but our birthright

Synergy of Abundance:
A Universal Wealth Amplification Ritual

This ritual will be designed to harmonize with any deity or higher power, allowing practitioners to insert their preferred divine entity seamlessly.

Ritual Concept:

"Invoke the Trinity of Wealth" - a universal ritual framework attracting abundance through:

1. Acknowledgment: Honoring the chosen deity's prosperous aspects.
2. Alignment: Synchronizing personal energy with divine wealth frequencies.
3. Amplification: Invoking collective cosmic abundance for manifestation.

Deity Integration Method: Practitioners will replace "[DIVINE NAME]" with their preferred deity's name throughout the ritual, ensuring universal compatibility.

Wealth amplification rituals harmonized divine energies with earthly desires. This universal ritual revives that synergy, inviting [DIVINE NAME]'s prosperous essence into your life. Perform this ceremony to attract abundance, manifest desires, and balance your energetic economy.

- Group Practice: Amplify collective wealth intentions with 3-7 participants; assign roles for invocation, alignment, and amplification.
- Moon Cycle Practice: Perform ritual every full moon for 3-6 consecutive cycles to establish profound abundance habits.

- Journal abundance insights and gratitude daily for a week.
- Repeat affirmations from ritual daily, especially upon waking and sleeping.

Tips for Manifestation Acceleration:

- Visualize abundant scenarios vividly 3 times daily.
